

Scene episode 5

Tony is having flash backs. Francis joins him

Francis:

what are you doing?...

Gonna throw it out there one more time.

What are you doing?

Tony:

sorry i was- i was meditating

Francis:

I didn't think you... kinda went for that stuff

Tony:

Seem to be going for a lot of stuff

that I never thought possible

Francis:

okay, well. I'll bite. Like what?

Tony:

well, like this place, for starters.

I mean, what the fuck?

But I'm off the oxys. And more importantly, the oxys weren't just for my knee.

I've been numbing a lot of shit for a lot of years.

And now here i am, facing it all,

and...I'm doing it off the drugs. Im not having the best time.

Francis:

Look, I know i was fairly out of it this morning,
but.. I still noticed you got very upset about Lars,
you know imaginary hallucination baby
and that you had fathered it and..

Tony:

I wasn't there when either of my kids were born.
With my older one i was working. I had a game.
But my younger one.. hmm i was high,
that much I remember.
I should've never come to this place.

Francis:

I think maybe it's exactly where you need to be.

Tony:

You're a good person, Frances.
I mean , i know i keep saying that, but its

Francis:

You have never said that

Tony:

Really?

Francis:

I keep saying that, repeatedly, hoping it'll you know, catch on.

Tony:

well i knew i heard it somewhere.

(She smiles) Every time i close my eyes here,

I just — i just I keep seeing those things that I don't want to face.

Every fucking mistake that i ever made.

Francis:

Maybe you shouldn't close your eyes.

Tony:

I'm not sure i want any of this bad enough, Frances.

Im not gonna make it

Frances:

Well, what do you mean? You're not-

- You're not gonna make it where?

Tony:

To the end of the week. The end of the year.

Frances:

what are you ? What are you saying?

What are you saying?

Tony:

nothing. Im not saying anything,

I don't know what I'm saying. Forget it.

Frances:

I'm not gonna forget it. Im, im worried for you

Tony:

No. you don't need to be worried about me.

Frances:

I know i don't need to. I want to

Tony:

Well, see, like i said. You're a good person.

Frances:

You're full of shit.
