

ROSALYN

I put out the fire. The fire is out.

IRVING

First time in my life I do the right thing.

ROSALYN

Oh shut up.

IRVING

No, no, no.

ROSALYN

Shut up.

IRVING

I save a young, single mother and a kid. I marry you, I adopt him.

ROSALYN

You fell in love. Don't you dare forget that part. We fell madly in love.

IRVING

Yes, I fell in love, my God I fell in love. But you know what I thought, you were mysterious like my mother, until it turned out that mysterious just meant depressed all right, hard to reach. I mean, I'm dying here and you need somebody who's gonna be quiet, who's gonna be sure of you. You're young and beautiful, you're gonna find somebody else. You're gonna go out and get some friends all right? Just sitting inside..

ROSALYN

I don't like going out. You know that I get anxiety when I have to meet people. You know how hard that is.

IRVING

You can not just stay in a house with a fucking sun lamp all right? And I can, I mean look, I can't trust you with Danny, when you.. That fire and everything. I can't trust to leave you alone.

ROSALYN

I put the fire out Irving, there is no fire. Maybe if you were here more, then it wouldn't have been a fire in the first place.

IRVING

Oh what, that wouldn't been a fire if I was here.

ROSALYN

Just stop with the whole fire thing. God, that was a mistake. I'm sure a million of people do that, all the time. Those sun lamps are dangerous. It shouldn't even happen in the house really. I bet that happens all the time. This was nothing.

IRVING

We're not happy all right?

ROSALYN

You know that I can take Danny, you know that most of your work is illegal, and you know that if you try to divorce me you know that I'm not saying that I would but I'm saying that I could. And I'm saying that that is why I don't like divorce Irving. Women do that in divorces, women get the children and then the fathers never see them. My mother never got divorce, my grandmother never got divorce. They are no divorces in my family. I'm not getting a divorce.

IRVING

Come on, what are we doing here?

ROSALYN

We fight and we fuck and that's what we do, that's our thing. Stop being so difficult. Just come here, come here. Stop. Irving, Irving come to mama, come on. Irving, Irving.

IRVING

Oh my God.

ROSALYN

Come here, come on. Get in the bed.

IRVING

All right.

ROSALYN

Baby, there's such good stuff here.
