

ENEMY OF THE STATE (FIGHT SCENE)

Robert walks in to see Carla sitting at the table reading the paper.

Robert: Carla?

Carla: How could you let me find out like this?

Robert: I'm just finding out like this. This is all lies, none of this stuff is true.

Carla: So your saying you weren't there with her?

Robert: No...no I mean I was there, we had lunch. We have lunch once a month. She is the contact for the investigator Brill. You were right about them. Someone must've taken this picture off of the security camera outside the restaurant.

Carla: You said she wasn't an issue.

Robert: She's not! I have to see her for business...and I knew if I told you, you would—

Carla: Bobby you had an affair with this woman! An affair! We went to a counselor for a year. And now you're standing there lying about even seeing her? You make me sick.

Robert: Carla I am smeared all over the newspapers with money laundering schemes, mob ties, I lost my job. I am asking you...I am asking you to please...please just trust me on this Rachel Banks thing right now.

Carla: How in God's name can you ask me to trust you? Robert I want you to leave.

Robert: Carla I'm telling you that this is all bullshit!

Carla: I don't want to hear anything else. I don't hear anything else. I can not think with you in my face. I want you to leave.

Robert: What do you need to think about I'm telling you it's bullshit?!

Carla: Robert get out! Get out and just leave so I can think. Just leave Bobby, just go for me so I can think. Just go. Go.

Robert: Carla this is bullshit!
