

How to get away with murder

ANNALISE

You lied so much to me your words mean nothing. You mean nothing to me.

SAM

Will you just stop for one second.

ANNALISE

No I'm done saving your ass. I'm done believing in you. I'm done loving you. Get out of this house.

SAM

I'm begging you, do not give up on me.

ANNALISE

I already have.

SAM

As your husband, I love you.

ANNALISE

Get out of this house, or I'm calling 911.

SAM

I am not leaving until you talk to me.

ANNALISE

Everyone's violent, give him a chance.

SAM

No. Not me. You know that.

ANNALISE

I tried to believe you. This whole time, I didn't listen to myself.

SAM

I'm still the man you married.

ANNALISE

You are not that man anymore. And, I don't think you ever were. Which is why I think you chose me isn't it? I've been the window dressing for you. The woman on your arm, so that you can hide, people only saw the good guy. Maybe it took me all these years to see it, but I do now...I see it. And, I know you killed Lyla because she was pregnant, and you knew if it got out, people would see you as the pathetic man you are.

SAM

You think I killed her? Why not just go to the police? Why get them to run a DNA test instead? So, you can cover your ass, cause that's who you are. A scared little girl who pretends to be strong. But, who is really just weak and selfish.

ANNALISE

I did what I could to protect you...

SAM

You did nothing but make my life miserable.

ANNALISE

I've been screwing another man. His name is Nate. And, boy is he good to me. He knows me, and just what I like, and how I like it. He knows how to make me scream and groan and sweat. And, so I let him take me where ever he wants, on this counter, on my desk, in our bed.

SAM

You hypocrite.

ANNALISE

I'm thinking about him right now.

SAM

Shaming me, when you've all this time been cheating.

ANNALISE

Which is how I could sleep with you all these months, and I would think about him, and I'd be able to stand you on top of me.

SAM

And, I think of Lyla every time I try to get off with you.

ANNALISE

I bet you did. Killing her, you enjoyed it, didn't you? Strangling her, watching the life go out of her body. You still think about it don't you? You had your hand around her neck, while you were still inside her. It's exciting right now isn't it? Remembering it? You want to do it to me now don't you? Go ahead. Kill me. Kill me. Kill me.

SAM

You're a monster.

ANNALISE

Monster? Is that all you got? You have to do better than that.

SAM

You want the truth? You're nothing but a piece of ass. That's what I first saw when I talk to you in the office that day because I knew you'd put out. That's all you're really good for. Dirty rough sex. I'm too ashamed to tell anyone about it, that's how foul you are you disgusting slut.

ANNALISE

At least you were finally able to tell the truth.
