

Sorry For Your Loss

EP.1

Monologue

Leigh I had written myself notes. I only have five minutes. I didn't want to spend the entire time rambling.

Woman It's okay if you ramble.

Leigh No, it's not.

Woman Yes, it is.

Leigh No, it's not. I don't ... It's right here, so....Um...

I was online yesterday and a bunch of people had posted links to this infographic, and... Does everyone know what that is... It's a cartoon that illustrates statistics. So,,um,, this infographic was about marriage, and it said that if your spouse dies, it feels like losing $308,780 a year, which sounded crazy to me at first. Like how do you... how do you put a dollar amount on death? Like, how is that even a thing with a price tag? Um.. then I started to think about what it would feel like to lose $308,780 a year. And it would feel like, like a problem you could never fix. It's an impossible amount of money to lose. Um,, I don't know if it's an exact number. The 780 at the end feels a bit weird. But I would say that my husband being dead feels like the same kind of impossible thing. That's what I got.

All Thanks for sharing.

Leigh Okay, you're welcome.

Woman You still have a few minutes.

Leigh I don't really want them.
